THE HORNET HAS ARRIVED FOURTEEN ARE DEAD

OFF THE ATLANTIC COAST FROM HONDURAS TODAY, AND THE REBELS BEGAN MARCH ON THE CAPITAL CITY.

(Herald Special.)

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Dec. 29.— The rebel gunboat Hornet arrived off the Atlantic coast today, and simultaneously a force of three thousand revolutionists began marching on this city. The rebels will meet small resistance here. The revolution will be officially launched next Sunday.
It is reported here that the government at Washington is in accord with the revolutionary movement because of the anti-Zelaya policies assumed by the United States in the recent Nicaraguan revolution.

A New Orleans Report.
(Herald Special.)

New Orleans, La., Dec. 29.—The expected revolution has started in Honduras, according to private cables received here today. General Christmas, an American, is in charge of sixteen hundred rebels. The Davilla government has sent $55,000 in silver from Puerto Cortez to Ceiba, which city is believed to be the objective point of the revolutionists.

Jap Deported Another Held

(Herald Special.)

Manila, Dec. 29.—One Japanese has been deported and another was today turned over to the local authorities for trial, on the charge of having illegally stored explosives within the city limits. The man deported was discovered putting the finishing touches on a complete wireless outfit near the naval station at Atlongapo.

More Trouble May Follow the Attack

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 29.—Washington officials express the fear today that the reported attack on United States Vice Consul Adolph A. Williamson by Chinese and Japanese yesterday at Dalny, Manchuria, may be but the forerunner of more serious anti-American demonstrations.

It was stated today that a rigid investigation of the attack would be made, and it is probable that severe punishment for the offenders may be demanded of the Japanese government.

Williamson refused to leave the market place yesterday and was attacked.

Final Arguments Were Begun Today

Kansas City, Kas., Dec. 29.—The final arguments in the suit to oust the Standard Oil company from the state were begun before Judge L. W.
Keplinger today. The suit against the Standard was started in 1906. The arguments will require three days.

No Arrests Made.

Sheriff Boyd came home from his man-hunt in the Wells Creek community last night, without making any arrests. It has been learned by the officers that the negro doing the killing, using a knife as a weapon, was a visitor in the community, coming it is said from Dallas or that section. The victim, Elmo Johnson, lived in the community. Sheriff Boyd went as far as Jacksonville in the hope of finding his man or getting on his trail, but so far has made no arrest.

boiler of the Morewood Ice plant, a few miles from this city, exploded.
Only four of those killed have so far been identified. They are: Wm.

fore time for them to go to work.
The explosion came without warning.
The company's plant was completely nounced today as 2410, and Longview

MANY DEAD AT EL PASO.

Over a Dozen Persons Buried In Slag Pit of Smelter Company.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 28.—While workmen were blasting slag in the El Paso smelter this morning for railway ballast, dynamite stored in a pit where a score of men were at work exploded and nearly all the men are believed to have been buried.

The work of excavation was only begun at noon. Scores were hurt in the vicinity of the explosion.

The smelting plant itself, the property of the American Smelting and Refining company, was not damaged except for broken windows and roofs from the force of the explosion and flying debris.

Numbers of houses were destroyed, also the store of E. M. Bray. The smelter hospital was also damaged and the home of J. M. Leitch in the smelter yards was wrecked, and a score of children playing in the vicinity received cuts and bruises.

Among the injured are Refugio Car-dena, Emetidio Rodriguez, Marquez Rodriguez, Pilar Montoya, Jose Melendez, William Davis, carpenter, Nome Marcenti Hermanos, a woman lying at the point of death near the scene of the explosion where the wreck and debris fell upon her. She and Melendez was ~~the~~.

It is believed that not less than twelve men were buried, while an official of the smelter company says that twenty-four men were at work in the pit when the explosion occurred. Four men have been accounted for, and it is feared that the dead may number anywhere from eight to sixteen.

The work of rescue is being pushed as rapidly as possible, but the heavy nature of the slag and gravel under which the victims lie makes the work slow.

Blackhand Gang Wreck House Today

(Herald Special.)

New York, Dec. 29.—That practically a life sentence is no deterrent to blackhanders was demonstrated today when another bomb outrage was perpetrated in the Italian quarter, making the fourth this week, and following a twenty-year sentence inflicted on two blackhanders. Blackhand-ers today attempted to destroy a big tenement house just before daylight and while eighty people were asleep in the house. The bomb tore the front of two stores out and demolished the stairway. The proprietor of one of the stores received a letter a few days ago demanding the payment of $2000. The money was not paid and today's explosion followed.

Earthquake Shocks Do Big Damage

Athens, Greece, Dec. 29.—Immense damage to property with probable loss of life has been occasioned in the Illis province by continuous earthquake shocks.

Hundreds of houses and stores have been shaken to the ground, and the province is reported in a stage of panic as a result.

BATTLE IS IMMINENT.

Mexican Troops Are After the Insurrectionists in the Hills.

Mexico City, Dec. 28.—Federal troops under command of General Luque have formed a junction with the forces under General Navarro, near Pedernales, Chihuahua, according to telegrams received here today by government officials. The opinion among the officials is that a battle will occur at any moment and they believe by tomorrow night at the latest they will receive dispatches telling of some engagement.

The troops near Pedernales number 2800. They have been gathered with the purpose in view of crushing the rebellion at the earliest possible moment. The soldiers under General Luque climb the hills on the sides of Mal Paso canyon instead of marching through the canyon, thus avoiding the possibility of an ambushade while en route to the camp of General Navarro.

Reports today stated that the troops met with no opposition whatever on their way to join General Navarro.
